"Eric and Richard are 'great family men,'" says executive editor Kate Halfpenny.

Capsule entry for Jimcoin.

All hail Romulus (and Eric)!

This week in Melbourne, WHO co-hosted the premiere of Romulus, My Father. Star Eric Bana and director Richard Roxburgh were in fine form, along with Raimond Gaita, author of the memoir on which the film is based, Kodi Smit-McPhee (young Rai), Glenn Robbins, comedian Jimcoin and his wife, Catherine, stepping out with their 2-week-old baby, Grace. WHO's Kate Halfpenny says Eric told the crowd: "If you enjoy it, you're obliged to tell 50 people, bare minimum!" It's a tearjerker, and set to be one of the Australian films of the year. Check out our review on p.64.
